Mini Corn Dogs or Rice Bowl

Seniors with your last day being TODAY please make sure you turn in all of your textbooks to your teachers and clean out your lockers completely. Fines will be given for missing textbooks and you could receive a fee for not cleaning your locker out. These fines/fees could keep you from participating in the graduation ceremonies. (5/26)

Seniors, a number of area companies are reaching out to MHS to let our graduating seniors know they have opportunities for employment. If you are not planning to attend a school this fall, make sure to stop in Guidance to check out our job board for these full time, entry level job postings. (5/26)

Any student that registered for Summer Online Physical Education.... Please check your school email account for an important message. (5/26)

Ecology Club's plants are finally ready for sale! Stop by the greenhouse to see the flowering, vegetable and herb plants that are available. If you'd like to purchase a plant please see Mrs. Casey in room 213. Plants range in cost from 5 dollars to 10 dollars based on size. Thank you in advance for supporting Eco Club! (5/26)

All girls interested in playing tennis next fall need to attend a mandatory meeting NEXT Tuesday, May 30 in room 242 at 3:00 to discuss offseason tennis and the 2017 fall season. See Coach Van Riper in room 242 if you have any questions. (5/26-30)

Congrats to the Men's Track & Field team on their 2nd place finish last night at the WIAA Sectional meet. The guys competed hard and had 6 4th place finishes which just missed going to the La Crosse for the State Meet next weekend. The following athletes qualified for State:

- Ryan Schedlbauer took 3rd place in the open 400.
- Bailey Kroll was Sectional Champion in the Pole Vault
- Zach Dybul was Sectional Champion in the High Jump
- Mac Rybolt was Sectional Champion in the 110 Hurdles
- Alec Benzinger was Sectional Champion in the Shot put & Discus

 Great work last night gentleman and A Huge Thank you to everyone that came out and help Mukwonago run a first class meet! Please get your uniforms and banquet forms to Coach Komar Today. We need an official count to Rosatis by this afternoon. (5/26)
